Letter to the Editor

In our last edition, we published a story about "TTT" or "Teacher Talk Time." Owen Daniell took the time to write back. We appreciate hearing from you! Write to us at edisonpress@gmail.com

Dear Publishers,

I frequently read your paper and I like it very much. But, I think the publishers could be a little more inclusive. I saw an article about TTT in your June paper. I enjoy participating in TTT every Friday afternoon. Despite this, I did not find my name on the list of members. TTT should be open to everyone and the "TTT is full for now" sentence in the article is basically excluding anyone else who would want to be in it.

Sincerely,
Owen Daniell

Dear Owen,
Thank you for your input. We apologize that we left out your name. More importantly, thanks for thinking about being more inclusive.

Writing About This Tree

By Youha T.
This tree fell down in summer break, I think. So if you go to the Light Bulb publishing program, you might see something interesting happen, like this branch falling down. You might want to write about it. If you do, email us at edisonpress@gmail.com

Edison Student Publishers Eugene, Oregon, USA

In our after school (and summer!) publishing program, students explore positive and powerful ways to share their interests, skills and opinions, creatively and respectfully, through drafting, collaboration, conferencing and revising. Opinions expressed are those of each author and do not necessarily reflect those of the publishing program or Edison School. We invite your feedback.
